Reappraisal of Actual Cost

Roughage Is Out

The Federal government has brought the Texas Roughage program to a halt, after the $1,000,000 previously appropriated ran out.

The volume of approved applications for assistance under the Texas Emergency roughage program has exceeded the estimates of demand made when this program was negotiated, so it is necessary to reappraise the actual cash requirements.

The agreement between Secretary Ezra Taft Benson and Governor Allan Shivers provides an allocation of $1 million of Federal funds for the roughage program. Funds available to the U. S. Department of Agriculture to finance roughage programs must be allocated among all disaster designated states where such a program is needed.

Walter T. McKay, Texas State Director of Farmers Home Administration, has been instructed by K. L. Scott, Director of Credit Services, U. S. Department of Agriculture, to immediately instruct all FHA County Offices in the designated areas to withhold further approvals of roughage purchase certificates. The County Offices are authorized to continue to accept and hold on file applications for assistance under this roughage program, but are instructed to take no action on these applications and to make daily reports on the tonnage requirements covered by such applications to Mr. McKay's office.

McKay has been asked to solicit the assistance of the Texas USDA Drought Committee and the Office of the Governor in making a careful reappraisal of the demand for assistance under this Emergency Roughage program including financial requirements.

Scott stated that in keeping with the policies and the desires of Secretary Benson, the Department will continue to work closely with Gov. Shivers and leaders in the State and give all assistance possible within the authority and funds available to the Department in providing assistance to Drought stricken farmers and ranchers in Texas.

Castroville's City Council has been turned down on their request for a red light in their city. The Highway Department, according to Mayor Woodrow Sharp, does not believe a stop and go light is necessary at the present time in Castroville. The Council had requested one to replace the caution light at the bridge in Castroville. The Highway department suggested the 40 mile per hour speed limit be enforced, to take care of the situation.

The Council, meeting last Tuesday, set the charges for water consumers out-of-the city limits. City secretary Pat Lafferty was instructed to charge all such customers $4 for 5,000 gallons, the regular charge being $2 for the same amount.

Mayor Sharp reported he is working on plans for a new city dumping ground, and hopes to announce definite plans at the next regular meeting Oct. 9.

Frank Keller and Gene Suehs, city councilmen, will serve on the "Complaints Committee" for the month of October.

Hondo Lions Club To Have Speaker

Frank Robertson of San Antonio, president of the Lions Crippled Children Camp at Kerrville, will be guest speaker Wednesday October 10 at the Hondo Lions Club.

W. F. Gaudin, program chairman, urges all members to make a special effort to hear Robertson tell of the project.

Wildcats Brighten Oil World

By Dick Tatum
Two more wildcat efforts brightened the Medina County Oil picture this week.

A 1,200-foot tester is being drilled by Paul Morrison, Uvalde operator, on the A. J. Boggus land. Staked 3.4 miles S. E. Yancey, it is in the A. Kemp Survey No. 521.

Another wildcat has been located in the Adams Gas field nine miles W. N. W. Devine in the J. G. Durst Survey No. 14. This is San Antonio Oil Producer, Inc.'s 2,500-foot effort on Carlton W. Adams' land. They were coring in the Austin Chalk this week.

Listed as "Temporarily abandoned" was the No. 1 Floyd J. Griffin being drilled by Clyde A. Maley.

It was drilled to 861-feet with some shows of oil at 552-554-feet. The well is located 10 miles S. E. Hondo.

In the Chico Lake field, War & Bushy are getting three bbls. daily from their Navarro sand well at 755-feet. Gravity is 38. Top of the pay is 726-feet.

County Taxes Now Payable At Hondo

Medina County taxes are now payable, according to Alfred J. Rohrbach, county tax assessor-collector.

The opening date for payment was Monday and the deadline is set for Jan. 31, 1957. One and one-half per cent penalty will be added after the deadline and an additional one and one-half per cent will be added each month until July 1, 1957, when 11 per cent will be added.

Medina County citizens can save three per cent by paying their taxes during the month of October, two per cent in November and one per cent in December. Last year, 92.17 per cent of taxes were collected.

The tax assessor-collector's office, which is located in the court house at Hondo, is open each day from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. except Saturday, when they close at noon.

Services were conducted by Horger Funeral Home and interment was in Hondo.

Six-man football will hit the Hondo area Oct. 11, as the D'Hanis Cowboys tangle with Tilden at 7:30 on Barry Field. This is the first six-man game played in Hondo this year, and D'Hanis school officials say they will make it an annual affair to give the people of this area a chance to see a six-man team in action. A member of District 83B, D'Hanis is undefeated in season play. They take on Leakey at Sabinal Saturday. The Oct. 11 game will be the Cowboys' first conference game.

Air Crash Leaves No Injuries

A Hondo Air Base T-28 airplane crash left no injuries and only minor damage Monday afternoon about 1:30.

Second Lieutenant John E. Rush, class 57 Quebec student officer from Pewaukee, Wis., made a forced landing, shortly after take-off on a solo student training mission two miles north of Hondo. The "excellent" forced landing was made in a plowed field, according to Air Base officials.

Relatively minor damage was done to the air craft but it will be listed as major until they determine the exact extent of damage and cost of repair. Repair work will be done at the Texas Aviation Industries' Maintenance shop.

Officials said cause of the crash was suspected to be engine failure resulting in mechanical failure. There will be an extensive investigation of the accident to determine the cause.

Lt. Rush is married and has a three months old daughter, Pamela. His wife's name is Diane. They reside at 107 Cedar St., Hondo.

Officials at the Air Base said there was little damage to the farm, except for minor damage to a fence.

Republican Women Hear Talk

The president of Texas Federation of Republican Women, Mrs. Robert O'Callahan of San Antonio, was a Hondo visitor Monday morning.

Mrs. O'Callahan met with 14 local women at the home of Mrs. Frank X. Vance, Republican District Committee woman. She had been one of the Republicans to attend the campaign picnic given by the President and Mrs. Eisenhower on Sept. 12 at the Gettysburg farm home and she described the activities of that four-hour meeting.

The Eisenhowers invited only four Republicans from each of the 48 states and these representatives were asked to "take back the spark to your people."

Mrs. O'Callahan also met with Castroville Republican women Monday morning.

No Reassignment Of Students This Year

The Hondo School Board, meeting Wednesday night, denied a request by Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Streetman, to reassign students in the second and fourth grades at North Side school.

The action followed a hearing held last Wednesday, when Frank Vance, attorney for the Streetmans, tried to prove the School Board had been "un-American, illegal and un-Christian" in sending the second and fourth grades to the North Side school.

The following is a letter from the School Board to the Streetmans:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Streetman: The Board of Trustees of the Hondo Independent School District has carefully studied and considered all of the evidence and testimony presented at the public hearing held pursuant to your request Sept. 26, 1956, and has come to the following conclusions:

1. attendance at the North Side school, a facility greatly needed by the school at this time, has been set up on a volunteer basis and the public was duly advised of same in front page items in the Hondo Anvil Herald in editions dated August 17, 24 and 31. The practice of voluntary attendance is not un-American, illegal nor un-Christian; but, to the contrary, is our American way of life.

2. The offer of voluntary attendance at the North Side school is consistent with prior actions of the Board as exemplified by a similar action with regard to the use of the West Ward school in 1953. Notices were published during that summer in the local paper asking voluntary attendance at West Ward. On the opening day of school the building was picketed and all elementary children appeared at the Central Elementary building, causing an intolerable crowding of students. The Board then exercised its legal authority by designating the West Ward school as the one to be attended by the fourth and fifth grades. In the case of the North Side school, sufficient children are in voluntary attendance to warrant the use of the building without coercion by the Board. To our knowledge this arrangement has not been detrimental to the welfare of any child. Actual proof to the contrary was not established during the hearing.

3. The School Board is well aware of the present handicaps the school suffers because of a lack of classroom space. The inconveniences have been tolerated and sympathetically accepted by most school patrons, for which we are extremely grateful. The shortage of classrooms will be remedied with the occupation of the new elementary building in January.

4. Your statement at the hearing that you would not have entered a protest had your child been allowed in 1955-56 to attend the first grade section of your choice, and your statement that had first and third grade classes been operated at the North Side school this year you wouldn't have protested, clearly indicate that your action in this matter has been motivated by a personal grievance rather than your desire to be a public benefactor.

5. Since your publication of a certain letter in the Anvil Herald August 25, your presentation of a petition to the City Council, and the presentation to the Business and Professional Women's Club of a similar petition were actions taken prior to having asked for a hearing before the Board, the Board is of the opinion that such procedure does not conform to good practice and tends to engender ill feeling in the community and results in harm to both community and school.

6. Further, the contacting of certain Latin-American and negro citizens in an effort to secure support for your complaint was ill-advised.

7. The Board realizes that there are certain people who have grievances, be they justified or not, against the school administration. These people probably have been more than happy to aid and abet you in criticizing school policies even without your knowledge, and have probably caused as much harm as have your efforts.

For reasons contained in paragraphs one and two above, the Board has voted unanimously to deny your request to reassign students in the second and fourth grades.

Ike Better Democrat Than Adlai, Says Supporter

A bunch of us were standing around talking the other day, and the talk got around to politics like it usually does. Some of the boys said they'd voted for Ike in '52 and were going to do it again; some of them said they'd always voted the Democratic ticket straight and always expected to—you know how it goes around a little Texas town.

One fellow said something that made the rest of us stop and think. He said he was a Democrat, sure—always had been, and his father and grandfather before him. And he always felt like he had to vote for the best Democrat in the race, which he was going to do this year.

"And that means," he said, "that I'll have to cast my vote for Ike Eisenhower. He's a better Democrat, by my definition of a Democrat, than that other fellow ever will be."

And besides that, he said, Ike kept his promises to Texas and Texas ought to return the favor by keeping Ike.

You know, he might have had something there. "Gratitude" is one of the greatest words in the English language, and we all like to think of ourselves as being grateful when people do something for us. Like I heard a man say one time: "Texans are people who never forget anything that is done TO them—or FOR them." That's the way we think of ourselves, and it's about right.

This Eisenhower man pointed out that Ike promised to give the Tidelands back to Texas, and he kept that promise; he promised to do his best to close out Mr. Truman's war in Korea, and he kept that promise, and he promised to give us a government in Washington that we could be proud of, because it was clean and honest and efficient—and, in this man's opinion, he had kept that promise. "I know you're reading and hearing a lot of stuff to the contrary," he told us, "coming from Brother Stevenson and Brother Kefauver and the rest of the politicians on the other side. That's politics for you. Everybody expects them to jump on Ike every way they can, and I guess they'll keep on doing it right up to Nov. 6. But the American people are smarter than some politicians give them credit for being, and before they vote they're going to sit down and ask themselves this question:

"Remembering 1952, when our boys were dying in Korea and the newspapers were full of talk about mink coats and Communists and corruption in Washington—now, be honest about it: If you could, would you go back to 1952 and start over with Adlai Stevenson instead of Dwight D. Eisenhower?"

This man said he wouldn't, and come to think of it, I wouldn't either. As a matter of fact, I think Ike has made us one of the best presidents we ever had. If we had to go to war, I'd certainly rather have him at the head of our government than any other living American. But even more importantly—I'm convinced he is the best man to keep us OUT of war.

That's why I still like Ike—better than ever!

Yours truly,
Tex

STCC Will Discuss Legislative Issues

Federal and state legislative issues of current interest to commerce and industry in South Texas will dominate the concluding session of the 30th annual meeting of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, Monday, Oct. 8 in San Antonio.

A panel of Texas Congressmen and state senators and representatives will appear on the afternoon program to answer questions from the convention delegates and guests concerning federal and state legislation and taxation.

Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr., Houston insurance company executive and former Congressman, will serve as moderator for the forum. He will also be principal speaker at a luncheon preceding the forum.

Panelists will be Congressmen Joe Kilgore, Clark W. Thompson and O. C. Fisher; State Senators Searcy Bracewell, Houston, and George Parkhouse, Dallas; and Representatives Waggoner, Carr, Lubbock, speaker-elect of the next Texas legislature, and Marshall O. Bell, San Antonio.

The convention opens Sunday afternoon, Oct. 7, with seven committees meeting to plan projects for the chamber's 1956-57 program of activities. The committees will discuss water problems, highways, agriculture and livestock, industrial development, tourist promotion and wildlife conservation. Reports of the committees will be made to the board of directors the following morning. New officers and directors will be elected at the beginning of the session.

Approximately 250 delegates from the 52-county region of the South Texas Chamber are expected to attend the convention.

Datus E. Proper of San Antonio, president of the chamber, will preside at all general meetings, including the Monday luncheon when new officers will be installed.

Proper said the chamber's efforts for the past year have been largely concentrated on water problems of the entire South Texas area.

It is expected that the committee now working for the organization of an underground water district in the 15-county Edwards reservoir area and on surface water development throughout the 52 counties will make definite recommendations for a continued and vigorous water conservation program.

A reception and buffet dinner is scheduled after committee meetings Sunday for distinguished guests, members and visitors.

Seco Turns To Discussion Of Unfamiliar Term, Work

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his johnson grass farm discusses work this week, a subject he's as familiar with as he is high society.

Dear editor:
I visited my neighbor's house
the other night to return a newspaper I'd borrowed a couple of weeks ago and when I walked in he held his finger up to his lips and said, "Be quiet, he was a sign to be quiet, and since I wasn't watching television, and I wasn't doing anything else to do,
I didn't have anything to do, and I didn't understand the frame of mind you've got to be in to get the most out of your set, I sat down and watched too.

But the program he thought was coming on failed to show up on account of a political broadcast, which I really preferred anyway, and I was interested in what the speaker, who happened to be Vice-President Nixon, had to say.

He talked a good while, but the thing that made me sit up was his statement that this country is going toward a 4-day week.
Work four days, take off three.
I said, though for us not to look at the government for bringing this about, it'd have to be up to industry and the people.

Now, while I've never had much to do for a man who had to ask the government how many days a week he had to work, I'd like to say that as far as I'm concerned
I don't want to have to work for industry or the people, either.
I'm a favor of everybody or anybody having the freedom to work four days a week, if he wants to work that much.

I understand there has been some discussion and possibly misunderstanding over a Congressional candidate's visiting troubles of the small farmer wouldn't be so great if he'd get up and go to work. This seems to be just exactly backwards to me.

The trouble with the farmer, big and little, is that he's been working too much, or how else do you explain the surpluses? As I see it, there are two ways to avoid a surplus: (1) consume more of it, or (2) stop producing so much of it. And up to now, it seems like all the brains have been devoted to producing it, at least the people in charge of increasing the consuming part don't seem to be holding up their end.

I don't want to be bragging,
but it looks like I've been way ahead of the rest of the country.
I tried the 4-day week long ago, then the 3-day, the 2-day, the 1-day, and occasionally the no-day week, but my trouble is that when I got my work week down to nothing, it took care of the over-production end, but threw a monkey wrench in the consuming end.

The trouble with this country is it's got to the point where it's a lot easier to put groceries on the store's shelves than it is to take them off. You or Congress ought to work on that end of the problem.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Macon and Marlene Delavan

Former Medinans Take Honors

Macon and Marlene McKenzie Delavan, graduate students at Westminster Choir College, Princeton, New Jersey, have been honored by being selected as members of Westminster Choir which left Princeton Oct.
1 on a tour of 27 Far and Middle Eastern and European countries from Japan to Spain.

The tour is being made in cooperation with the American National Theatre and Academy which is the appointed agency of the State Department for administering the President's Fund for International Affairs. This world renowned choir under the direction of the school's founder, Dr. John Finley Williamson, has made 35 consecutive tours of North America and two tours in Europe. They have sung over 100 performances with the Philharmonic Symphony Society of New York under such conductors as Bruno Walter, Guido Cantelli, Leopold Stokowski, Arturo Toscanini, and Dimitri Mitropoulos.

Marlene is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. J. O. McKenzie of Grapeland, Texas. She attended
Bertram Elementary School,
Grapeland Junior High School,
Gaston High School at Joiner-ville, Texas, and was graduated from Bertram High School in 1949. Miss McKenzie entered Southwest Texas State College,
San Marcos, Texas where in 1952 she married Macon Delavan of Devine. She received her Bachelor of Music Education Degree in August 1954, and was graduated as an honor student and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She taught voice and choir two years, 1954-55, at San Marcos Baptist Academy.

Macon is the son of Mrs. E. H.
Delavan of Route 1, Devine. He attended Woodlawn Elementary School and Horace Mann Junior High School in San Antonio, and was graduated from Devine High School in 1950. In the fall of that year he began his work at Southwest Texas State College toward a Bachelor of Music Education degree, which he completed in January, 1955. Delavan was twice elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The Delavans jointly served the Wimberley Community church at Wimberley, Texas for three and one half years as music directors.
During their under-graduate work, both were soloists in the choir as well as taking part in many other school activities.

In the late summer of 1955, the
ston, New Jersey, and Westminster Choir College to work toward the Master of Music degrees. In the spring of 1956 they were chosen for the Westminster Touring Choir as baritone and soprano.

The choir will leave Princeton Oct. 1 on a tour to San Francisco, where they will board a plane Oct. 28 for overseas. They will appear in only one Texas town, Amarillo, Oct. 13 and 14.

Announcement has been made by Commissioner of Agriculture that the deadline for destroying cotton stalks is Oct. 10. Remember this date.

The useless life of sprinkler irrigation equipment can be extended through proper maintenance. Bob Thurmond, Extension Irrigation Specialist, says as soon as the irrigation season is over, it is time to do some of the maintenance jobs. He says the engines should be checked by a qualified mechanic and if the pumping units are left in the field over winter, they should be covered by a waterproof tarpaulin or a suitable structure. Special care should be taken to see that no moisture enters the exhaust pipes of internal combustion engines.

Impeller and seal rings on centrifugal pumps should be checked. Sprinkler heads should be removed and checked for excessive wear and repairs made if needed. Gaskets should be inspected and all sand or packed soil removed.

If fertilizer is applied through sprinkler systems, he says make sure all equipment is thoroughly flushed and is clean before shutting down. Should corrosion be detected in any part of the system, he advises getting in touch immediately with the supplier. If corrosion is detected early, several remedial steps can be taken to stop the damage.

The investment in a properly equipped sprinkler is a heavy one and deserves to be protected not only for extending its useful life but also to get the most efficiency from its use.

Constitutional Amendments

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of articles explaining the proposed Texas Constitutional Amendments to be voted on in November.)

AUTHORIZING THE LEGISLATURE TO GRANT AID OR COMPENSATION TO PERSONS WHO HAVE PAID FINES OR SERVED PRISON SENTENCES FOR OFFENSES OF WHICH THEY WERE NOT GUILTY.

H. J. R. No. 31

House Joint Resolution No. 31, if adopted, would add a new section to be designated as Section 51-c, to article III of the Constitution of Texas.

The text of the proposed amendment is very simple and self-explanatory: "The Legislature may grant aid and compensation to any person who has heretofore paid a fine or served a sentence in prison, or who may hereafter pay a fine or serve a sentence in prison, under the laws of this State for an offense for which he or she is not guilty, under such regulations and limitations as the Legislature may deem expedient."

Many states have statutes providing for compensation of persons who have been wrongfully convicted of crime. The arguments for such provisions are appealing to the average citizen's sense of justice.

House Joint Resolution No. 31 would simply authorize such a statute in Texas; the Legislature would decide when such aid or compensation might be granted, how the amount would be determined, and who would be responsible for administration. The amendment is written broadly enough that a special law or appropriation could be adopted for an individual case.

ALLOWING THE COMMISSIONERS COURT TO LEVY WHATEVER PROPERTY TAX RATES IT DEEMS NECESSARY FOR A COUNTY'S FOUR CONSTITUTIONAL FUNDS. SO LONG AS THE TOTAL DOES NOT EXCEED 80c ON THE $100 VALUATION.

H. J. R. No. 23

House Joint Resolution No. 23 proposes to rewrite Section 9 of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas so as to give the Commissioners Court of a county authority to vary the tax rates each year for the four constitutional purposes without having to get taxpayers' approval at a special election.

Our Constitution now limits the county property tax as follows: not more than 25 cents ad valorem tax for county purposes; not more than 15 cents for roads and bridges; not more than 15 cents to pay jurors and not more than 25 cents for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks and other permanent improvements. The Commissioners Court may re-allocate these taxes by changing the rates so long as the total tax for these purposes does not exceed 80 cents on the $100 valuation in any one year. Before the Court can make such changes, the proposition must be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters of the county voting in an election on that question. After voter approval such re-allocation and changes remain in force for a period of six years unless there is a new vote on the question.

House Joint Resolution No. 23 would eliminate the requirement of a vote by the property tax paying voters before adjustment of these county rates and allow the Commissioners Court to levy whatever tax rate may be needed for the general fund, permanent improvement fund, road and bridge fund and jury fund so long as the total of these tax levies did not exceed 80 cents on the $100 valuation. The rates set in any year must not impair any outstanding bonds or other obligations of the county. Changes could be made from year to year but once the court had levied the annual tax rate, it would remain in force and effect during that taxable year.

The proposed amendment continues the provision allowing the Legislature to authorize an additional tax up to 15 cents for further maintenance of public roads, subject to a vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of a county. It continues the Legislature's authority to pass local laws for maintenance of public roads and highways without the legal notice required for local or special laws.

Those who favor this amendment argue that it is business-like; that its flexibility in allowing the County Commissioners to adjust the tax rates for these constitutional purposes from year to year is needed for better and more economical administration of the county's affairs. Opponents say that separate tax limits for each of these purposes were written into the Constitution as an important and needed protection for the taxpayers from loose fiscal policies, and that rates should not be changed or adjusted without the express approval of the qualified property tax paying voters.

VA Issues Warning To Veterans

A warning to veterans and widows and children of deceased veterans receiving pension from the Veterans Administration to report immediately any increase in income that would raise their annual income above stationary limitations was sounded today by Scott B. Harrington, Manager of the Veterans Administration Dallas Regional Office.

To remain eligible for pension under the law, according to Harrington, pensioners of World War I, World War II and the Korean conflict may not have an annual income from other sources exceeding $1,400 without dependents, or $2,700 with wife or minor children.

Harrington said veterans, widows and children receiving pension can save themselves inconvenience and possibly money by notifying VA promptly of any increase in income which would put them above the statutory limitations.

Pensions are payable to veterans for permanent and total disabilities of a nonservice-connected nature and to the widows and children of deceased veterans for non-service-connected death, providing the applicants are otherwise eligible. Harrington said any VA office can explain full eligibility requirements for pension.

Cancer Fear Useless; Doesn't Help Victim

Fear of cancer cannot help its victim, and unreasonable fear should be replaced by intelligent action concerning this disease, is the opinion of Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health.

The commissioner said that cancer can usually be cured in its earlier stages, before it spreads to other areas of the body. This has been demonstrated by the fact that many persons have been treated successfully by surgery, radium or x-ray and are living now, many years after a definite diagnosis of early cancer was made. Many people postpone diagnosis when they suspect cancer either because they dread to hear the truth or because they believe that a cure is impossible.

In the treatment of cancer, time is the most important factor, according to Dr. Holle. To produce satisfactory results, treatment must begin early in the course of the disease while the cancer is confined to a small area.

Persons suspecting cancer should consult their physician as soon as they notice any unexplainable lump, unusual discharge, a persistent sore on any part of the body, or any change in the appearance of a mole or wart. It is disastrous to wait for pain, as this is a late symptom that usually doesn't occur until the malignant growth has made considerable advance.

Two main rules should be followed in combatting cancer. First, have an annual physical examination by a reputable physician. In this way incipient cancerous conditions can be discovered and by proper treatment the disease can be conquered. The second rule is to mistrust high promising statements of "amazing new discoveries."

The value of early diagnosis cannot be stressed too strongly. For that reason all persons, especially those of middle age or older should have regular periodic physical examinations at least once a year.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Changed Her Whole "Point of View"

Some local high school teachers spent the summer taking courses at the State University. They learned a lot, but one of them—Miss Williams—got homesick.

"To save expenses," she reports, "we chose a hotel that was clean but grim. When I found my window looked out on a coal yard—my heart just sank!"

But, when Miss Williams noticed a pot of geraniums on the window sill—and a note saying "Look at these instead. (signed) Last Occupant"—she decided to stick it out. She kept those flowers watered and tended to make things that much easier on the next occupant.

From where I sit, it's often hard to adapt to new surroundings—just as new customs often seem strange to us at first. For instance, if you've always had tea with your meals you might find it odd that I prefer a glass of beer. It's OK to prefer what's familiar to you... but also keep an open mind on what's not.

Natalia Mustangs Win Over Poth 14-7

NATALIA — The Natalia Mustangs defeated the Poth Pirates in a hard fought game at Natalia Thursday night, by a score of 14 to 7.

Poth won the toss and chose to defend the south goal, but failed to make headway with the ball, being forced to kick out. The Mustangs gained some ground on several running plays, before Allen Lee, left half back for the Mustangs, went through the middle on a quick opening play for 20 yards and a touchdown. George Raute went around right end for the extra point. This all took place in the first 6 minutes of play and the quarter ended Mustangs, 7, Pirates, 0.

Early in the second quarter, Jesse Ruiz, a little 127 pound back field man for the Pirates, took the ball on the Mustang 11 yard line and went around his own left end for the goal stripe. Alfred Rendarz went through the line for the extra point.

After some seesaw plays up and down the field, Jimmy Putman, the Mustang quarterback, intercepted one of Edward Wolny's passes and took it to the Pirates 37, but the flame died out and the ball went over on downs.

Poth's Alfred Bendarz, 191 pounds, blurted through the center of the Mustang line and carried the ball to the Mustang 35, only to have the run offset by a 15 yard penalty on the next play for holding. A pass from the Pirates' Edward Wolny to Herbert Perez netted 30 yards to the Mustangs 20 yard line as the half ended with the score, Mustangs, 7, Pirates, 7.

In the third quarter, the Mustangs took the kickoff and with a series of first downs, mostly made the hard way, Jimmy Putman passed to Allen Lee on the Pirate 30 yard line and from there with power plays down the middle, the Mustangs pressed on to the visitors goal line, and made the extra point the same way. Third quarter ended with Natalia leading 14 - 7.

In the fourth quarter, Poth on a series of handoff plays and jump passes, worked their way to the Mustangs 9 yard line. From there Jesse Ruiz went around right end for a touchdown, but the play was nullified and Poth drew 15 yards for holding. They failed to gain on the next two downs and the ball went over on downs. From then on, it was a seesaw battle up and down the field, including an exchange of punts, when the final goal ended the game with the final score reading, Mustangs 14, Pirates 7.

Wildcats Lose To Comfort

The Castroville Wildcats traveled to Comfort last week, only to be beaten 7-0 in the final three minutes of play. It was Castroville's final non-conference game.

The most hopeful chance for a Wildcat score came in the second quarter, when Joe Hernandez, defensive half back, intercepted a Comfort pass on his own 25 yard line and returned it to the Comfort 40 before being hauled in. But, after receiving another first down, the Wildcats were held and lost the ball on downs just outside the 20 yard line.

Quarterback Melvin Parck looked very promising, as the young sophomore took the field for the first time.

Castroville attempted four passes, completing three for 25 yards, while Comfort tried eight passes and completed only one for 5 yards.

Comfort's ground attack totaled 120 yards while the Wildcats managed for only 105 yards on the ground. The Bobcats also led in the first down count, 11-7.

Castroville takes on its first district foes of the year at Castroville this Friday night, when the Rocksprings Angoras invade Castroville football stadium.

National Letter Week Set

Two Medina County postmasters have reminded local citizens that National Letter Writing Week will again be observed during the week of Oct. 7-13.

Postmasters C. M. Maney, Natalia, and Harry Fillemann, Hondo, say the week has been observed as a reminder of the true meaning of a personal letter and has been held each year since 1938.

Emphasizing the traditional sanctity of the letter mail, Maney reminded Natalia residents that one of the basic American freedoms is the uncensored transmission of their first class mail. It is the most valuable possession of the citizens of a free country. "We all know the human importance of letter writing," Fillemann said, "the way in which it holds scattered families together of giving comfort and love and news to all the people of the land. But its value is immeasurable greater than that. Its implications are almost infinite."

"We in America have the privilege of uncensored and unlimited means of communication. With this in mind, we urge all citizens of Hondo and Natalia to join in this national celebration. Let's make National Letter Writing Week for 1956 the greatest ever, the two men said."

Scout Fund Drive

A "dawn to dusk" campaign will get underway in Hondo Oct. 9, and will give every person the opportunity to share in the financial program of the Boy Scouts.

The annual Boy Scout financial campaign will kick-off with an early bird breakfast, where workers will meet and pick up their prospect cards. Plans are being perfected to recruit a large number of workers who will solicit funds to help maintain the training of youth through the Boy Scout movement.

O. J. Bomba, chairman of the troop committee, says this year, women will be asked to help in the collections.

All communities served by the Alamo Council, Boy Scouts of America, are conducting financial drives on Oct. 9, with the exception of those towns which conduct Community Chest campaigns where the Scout movement is included.

Men, methods and money are the three necessary "M's" in extending the program to boys. Once a year, money is sought to continue this worthwhile activity in the training of youth.

Boys may be Cub Scouts from eight through 10 years of age; Boy Scouts from 11 through 13 years and Explorers from 14 through 16 years of age.

Aim and purpose of Boy Scout training for all boys, is citizenship training and character building. Boys are taught to be physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

Any person wanting to help in the financial drive, should get in touch with Bomba as soon as possible.

Water Report Ready For County Citizens

Streams crossing the Edwards limestone in Medina County supply large volumes of water to the principal limestone aquifer, or subterranean reservoir, of Cretaceous age, which supplies the city of San Antonio and Comal Springs. Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay stated today in releasing a report prepared by the Geological Survey in cooperation with the Texas Board of Water Engineers.

Entitled "Geology and water resources of Medina County, Tex.," by Charles L. R. Holt Jr., geologist of the Geological Survey, the report shows that water is considered to be plentiful for domestic and farm use. In addition, substantial quantities are available for irrigation in the central part of the county from the principal aquifer and in the southern part of the county from the younger Carrizo sand and Leona formation.

The report contains records of 1,099 wells and 23 springs, including logs of 127 wells, periodic measurements of water levels in 54 observation analyses of 129 water samples obtained from wells and springs. The records show that 895 wells are used for domestic and stock purposes, 14 are used for public supply, 35 for irrigation, and 4 for industrial purposes, and that about 150 wells, including about 100 oil tests, are not used for water supply.

This report has been published and is now available for distribution to the public upon request to the Texas Board of Water Engineers, 1410 LaVaca, or the United States Geological Survey, Ground Water Branch, 302 West 15th Street, Austin, Texas.

PAGING THE LADIES

Miss Martha Mann

Married in Brockport, N. Y.

Mann-Bell Nuptials Read In New York September 15

White gladioli decorated the altar of the Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Brockport, N. Y., for the Sept. 15 wedding of Miss Martha Jane Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz H. Senne of Brockport, formerly of Hondo and Del Rio, and Louis John Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bell of Holley, N. Y. Rev. James F. Doyle performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon sheer, with Pointe de Venise lace trimming the scoop neckline and the shirred sleeves. Panels of matching lace extended down the skirt, which ended in a chapel train. A lace hat, embroidered with seed pearls and sequins and edged with pleated tulle held her finger-tip illusion veil. HOW MUCH SHALL I SAY?

In a classified ad say as much as is necessary to completely describe what you are offering of goods or services, little more. Be brief, concise, complete. Tell all you would like to know if you were the prospect.

Facts are what count in a classified ad. Superlatives are to be avoided. Readers of classified pages are looking for something. If you have it and your copy adequately describes it, leaves no question in prospect's mind, you will get action... a sale if terms are right.

A buyer looking for something in classified pages will read most of the ads to find it. The judicious use of display type, a little white space at top and bottom, the boxed ad — as in display ads on these pages — command attention, adding to the pulling power.

Say what is essential in your ad; use display space where competitive advertising dictates the need.

PRESENTS SOME STARTLING FACTS

A PORTENTOUS TREND

One of the best, if not the very best, assets any man, or any set of men (governing body), can have is a good credit.

Like all good things, it becomes one of man's greatest dangers when misused or abused.

With both of the dominant political parties, not only refusing to face up to this fact but each trying to outdo the other in spending the people's money — and get away with it, — it behooves the people to give the matter their serious attention now!

Indeed it has been too long delayed already.

It seems that we have not only become indifferent to what may be the consequences of an astronomical public debt but have followed in the government's footsteps and are stretching our own personal credit to dangerously near the breaking point.

Read the following, keeping in mind that your own credit is jeopardized by the over expansion of all debts both public and private.

Americans went further into debt last year than they had in any previous peacetime year in history. The new figures, reported recently by the U. S. Department of Commerce, show that public and private debt increased by $51 billion, which equals more than $1,000 for every American family.

Net debt at the end of 1955 totaled a whopping $658 billion—about $15,000 for every family. Private debt alone is equal to $8,800 for every family, and government debt makes up the difference.

Noting that it is hard for anyone to comprehend so many billions, the Tax Foundation offers this illustration to show how rapidly debt increased last year:

—Total debt, which increased at a rate of $39,000 a minute in 1956, leaped up at $98,000 a minute last year.

—People bought so many houses with so little money down that nonfarm mortgage debt, which had increased at a rate of $21,000 a minute in 1954, rose by $27,000 a minute last year.

—Consumer debt, most of it for automobiles, rose by $12,000 a minute last year compared with about $1,000 a minute in 1954.

While all this private debt was piling up, the Federal government was relatively conservative, with the net Federal debt increasing only about $1 billion, the smallest increase since 1951. On the other hand, state and local debt went up $5 billion to help finance new schools, roads and other items.

The experts say that the big trouble with too much debt, especially government debt, is that it invites inflation. There are signs that Americans are not piling up debt quite so fast this year and the Federal government is even talking about reducing the national debt. These developments are warmly welcomed by people who say our hope of further prosperity is undermined by extravagant use of debt.

Although it has been the policy of the Eisenhower Administration to eliminate unnecessary government competition with the free enterprise system, a recent inventory showed the federal government was still operating 19,771 commercial-type activities, ranging from paper hanging to the generation of electric power.

Nearly $12 billion in capital assets have become accumulated by these government businesses. Everyone who pays taxes has invested in these businesses, whether he wanted to or not.

It will take a long time to get the federal government out of competition with private industry, but at least the present Administration has made a start. Many commercial activities of government have been ended, and the policy is that no new ones be started unless it would be "against the public interest to procure the product or service from private enterprise."

Hondo PTA Hears CD Discussion

"Medina County is one of only two counties in Texas that has not had a disaster in nine years," D. M. O'Connell told members of the High School Parent-Teacher Association in Hondo Monday night.

O'Connell said we could feel fortunate about this but that Civil Defense should be practiced in every home just as a precaution. Coordinator for Civil Defense in Medina County, O'Connell also showed a film on the atomic bomb, but pointed out that many other disasters could befall this area even though we may never face the tragedy of the big bomb.

During the business session Mrs. Glenn Gooding was elected delegate to attend the state PTA Convention to be held in Amarillo in November. The sophomore class won the room count.

Standby Reservists Get Questionnaire

Members of the armed forces' standby reserve in different parts of the state recently have expressed themselves as "surprised" and "puzzled" upon receiving questionnaires from local draft boards.

Draft boards are beginning administration of a law enacted by Congress in the immediately past session which placed upon the Selective Service System responsibility of screening the nation's entire standby reserve, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Thursday.

"Standby reservists, both men and women, are being mailed the questionnaires," Col. Schwartz said. "By law, these reservists are required to fill out these questionnaires and return them to the local boards for use in determining the reservists' availability in time of emergency."

Col. Schwartz pointed out that standby reservists cannot be called to service unless an emergency is declared by the Congress.

Based upon information furnished in his questionnaire, each standby reservist will be placed in one of three categories:

I-R — available for service.

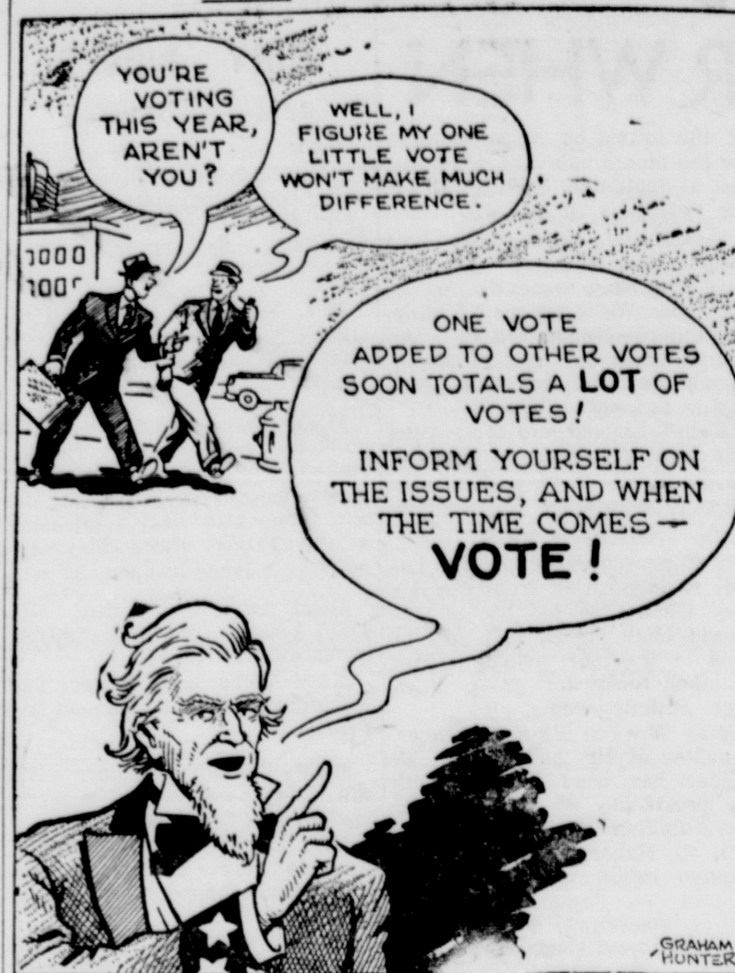

II-R — deferred because of civilian occupation essential to maintenance of national health, safety, or interest.

III-R — deferred by reason of extreme hardship and privation to dependents.

In time of war or emergency declared by Congress, the standby reservist in category I-R can be recalled to service by his armed force. Those in II-R and III-R will not be recalled to service unless there is a change in status which places them in category I-R.

"The standby reservist has the right of appeal if he is not convinced his category is correct," Col. Schwartz said. "The standby reservist has a legal responsibility to keep his local board informed of any change in his address or status."

Gasoline Prices Reduced

The reduction in gasoline prices to farmers announced recently by the major oil companies will save Texas farmers a million dollars, according to J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Most petroleum companies raised their gasoline prices in June by one-half cent per gallon to farmers and ranchers only. This was shortly after Congress had exempted agriculture from the two cent (now three cent) tax on farm-used gasoline. Hammond asked for a Congressional investigation to see if there had been collusion in the price hike. A hearing on the matter was held in Washington in July. The companies contended the price hike was coincidental with the Congressional action.

After Congress adjourned, Rep. W. R. Poage of Waco, announced a hearing for Waco, Sept. 18. One major oil company announced before the hearing that it was rescinding its half-cent price hike. Another major company announced at the hearing that it was doing the same. Four days after the hearing, the last two major petroleum companies which had hiked prices revealed they were also reducing prices to farmers back to pre-June levels. At present no company is selling at the increased price.

Hammond estimates that it will save Texas farmers and ranchers about $750,000 a year.

"I am gratified that the oil companies have decided to reduce the prices of fuels to the farm and ranch trade to the same levels charged other bulk users," Hammond said.

Civil Service Announces Examination

An examination for Postmaster at LaCoste, $4,190 a year, will be open for receipt of applications until Oct. 23, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announced today.

They must also show that their background will enable them to maintain simple records of accounts or that it has given them a knowledge of postal procedures.

Applicants must take a written test. Those who pass will be assigned final ratings on the basis of this test and on their experience, ability, and character. There is a 1-year residence requirement and applicants must have reached their 18th birthday on the closing date for receipt of applications. Persons over 70 years of age may not be appointed.

Complete information about the examination requirements and instructions for filing applications may be obtained at the post office for which this examination is being announced. PERSONAL APPEARANCE

By Jerry June Berger

Once again Hondo's famous Paul Crume has had some publicity, but this time it was the wrong town. The Paul Crume's column in the Dallas Morning News Friday, Sept. 28, carried the following item:

"Mr. and Mrs. W. C. POOL of Longview went to Uvalde the other day and were greeted by a sign: 'This is God's Country. Don't Drive Through It Like Hell.' It's the drouth down there that causes people to draw the wrong conclusions, but we don't know what conclusion to draw about people from East Texas who can't read the word 'Hondo' or about column writers who can't remember making the same mistake, in print, twice. About four years ago Paul Crume made that identical error and we protested at that time too!"

MRS. HANS GRUN tells us that even though HASEY ECKHART is right here in Hondo, she is responsible for her son, RUDOLF, student at A&M having a big problem.

It seems that a few months ago HASEY was in Bryan visiting her sister and met a student from that school. Now RUDOLF is wanting to room with this young man but he refuses until HASEY is corresponding with him.

As of today, RUDOLF is still in a room by himself.

Even though we are a Democrat, we enjoyed listening in on a Republican meeting at the home of MRS. FRANK VANCE

Monday morning. Her guest, MRS. ROBERT O'CALLAHAN, of San Antonio, had attended the campaign picnic given by President and Mrs. Eisenhower and she had two notable souvenirs of the event.

One, something that will be of special interest to our female readers, was a yard of lovely cotton material bearing the Eisenhower toile. Included on it were his old home in Kansas, the one in Denver, the farm home, five stars denoting his generalship, and golf balls mingled with art supplies. One big omission: his home in Texas. The other souvenir of her trip was a cigarette lighter appropriately engraved for the occasion.

Brief visitors in Hondo Monday were former residents, the REINHART WEBERS. Now living in Alpine, they were headed for home with two of their grandchildren, the youngsters of the former JONELL WEBER, of San Antonio.

And another former resident, DR. M. S. DERANKOU, sent us a card from New York City recently. When he left Hondo, Dr. D. originally planned to go to Europe but has remained in New York sight-seeing for the present time.

The picture he mailed us was of the Brooklyn Bridge — didn't say he'd bought it though.

Judging from the samples she brought by the Anvil Herald office, we'd say MRS. ALFRED BRUCKS is one of the best doughnut makers in these parts. A yeast variety, they were big, hot and deliciously glazed.

Atascosa Celebrates Centennial This Week

Atascosa County is celebrating its 100th Birthday and holding a Centennial on Oct. 3, 4, 5 and 6. A parade 5 miles long, extending from Jourdanton, the County seat to Pleasanton, kicked off a huge celebration in a grand parade at 10 a.m. Oct. 3. Members of the Old Trail Drivers, Misses, and Military units (ground and air) participated in the largest parade ever held in the part of the country. The parade was never before seen in the county. Hundreds of cars, wagons, surreys, chuck-wagons and oxen were seen, together with the queen of Atascosa County and her Royal Court.

The first days activities, after the parade, were concentrated at the American Legion Park, which is located between Jourdanton and Pleasanton, on State Highway 97. A huge Centennial barbecue was served after the parade, with special music and program honoring all Old Timers and dignitaries. The nationally known WAF Band from Lackland Air Force Base presented a concert. Static displays and float entries are on display all day at the park.

Beginning at 8 p.m., on each of the four days, a Dramatic Historical Pageant, Atascosa County's Echoes of a Century, is being held at the Legion Park. It is a spectacular portrayal of memorable events and people, featuring a local cast of approximately 300 persons. The Pageant is professionally directed by the John B. Rogers Producing Co. of Fostoria, Ohio, and shows the history of Atascosa County from its beginning to modern times.

Saxet Farms Has High Producer

A special report of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America, Brattleboro, Vermont, announces the completion of an official production record by one registered Holstein cow in the herd of Saxet Farms, Natalia.

Weary River Governess Abbecker 3624501, milked twice daily for 365 days, produced a total of 16,021 pounds of milk and 588 pounds of butterfat as a four year old.

Texas A&M College supervised the weighing and testing of this record which compares with an annual production of only 5,815 lbs. of milk and 224 lbs. of butterfat by the average U. S. cow.

The new record is a part of the national Holstein organization's Herd Improvement Registry — a popular official testing program designed to provide individual lactation and lifetime production records on every cow in participating herds.

S P E A K I N G O F S P O R T S

By Dr. John H. Jennings

Hondo played their first out-of-town game of the season last Friday but if you were there you never would have known it. For the Owls took over Uvalde's Honey Bowl like THEY owned the place! The score . . . 35 to 7 . . . and what the Owls did to Uvalde should only happen to our favorite foes of Uvalde, Del Rio and Pearsall. The '56 Owls put on quite an exhibition . . . one of the best of any Owl squad ever.

Owl fans were there too . . . 1,000 tickets went pretty fast. No telling how many were there. The City of Hondo must have looked like an atomic bomb evacuation . . . and when they got to Uvalde they saw the explosion in chain reaction in 35 blue and white mushrooming points on the scoreboard.

E V E R E Y E A S T A R

With such a TEAM performance, it would be hard to single out individuals, for it WAS a team unified for one purpose that did it. However, here are some of the highlights as we saw it. First Alvin Hartman reached the Zenith of his QB career. Alvin mixed his calls beautifully and anyone he called on produced. The Coyotes never did know what to expect. Hartman's passes were perfect . . . for about the first time this year he displayed the CONFIDENCE in his passing to match the ability he has ALWAYS possessed. He threw 17 and complete 10 for 157 yards and two went for TDs. He carried 5 times for 40 yards and got one TD. None of Alvin's passes were even close to being intercepted.

N E U M A N R U N S

Uvalde had to punt eight times and the punter would have been better off had he stuck the ball in his pocket . . . for Safety Billy Neuman ran wild. He fielded four punts and ran them back for 30, 25, 40 and 20 yards, a 115 yard total. It was some fine (and some vicious) Owl blocking that got Billy on his way, but Neuman did a great deal on his own too . . . even Angermiller could not have done better. Neuman's punt returns were a most encouraging development.

V E R S A T I L I T

The entire backfield shared work equally well. Woolls put in his usual good game as he drove 100 yards in 16 carries. He got four thirteen yard gainers. Rambling Ray Highsmith equalled Woolls's efforts as he too carried 16 times for 101 yards. Ray got credit for the longest Owl rushing runs of 22 yards to the Uvalde 9 . . . and an 18 yarder to the 8.

Another important development was the game Windrow played. He was certainly a defensive stand-out at the end position . . . and his offensive display was bright. He shot through the Coyote line with lots of drive and determination and got 74 yards in 11 carries from his FB slot. Running as he did, Big John can be expecting his play to be called more often from here on in. His two longest runs were 15 and 12 yards.

Hartman shot his passes to about everyone. Neuman caught three for 7, 8 and a 67 yarder for a TD. Highsmith got two for 10 and 9 yards. Woolls had two for 15 and 5. Clyde Bohmfalk reached for two that got 13 and 9 yards. Then Butch Smith ran just right and Alvin rewarded him with a 14 yard TD toss.

So there's the story . . . the Owls could do no wrong . . . every back was running equally well. Alvin was passing perfect . . . and to everyone . . . while Neuman's running kept rubbing out Uvalde punts.

O W L D E N S E

The Owl defense was most effective. By quarters Uvalde got rushing yards as follows: 12, 16, 40 and 18 for a 86 total and first downs of 0, 1, 2, 1 for a total of four. Coach Max Carver and his assistant, James McDaniels, can certainly take a bow for the defense they set up to match the Coyote's Single Wing and "T" formation. The Owls were shifting all over the place before the snap and I wouldn't doubt that the Uvalde boys were blocking each other in the confusion. It was real nice from our side of the field!

T H E S C O R I N G

The Owls got a TD in each quarter and two in the final period. Neuman set up the first one on a 30 yard punt return to the Uvalde 40. Windrow got 9, later Hartman hit Woolls for 15 to the 10 where Highsmith set sail for the six points.

The second score found the Owls going 83 yards, as the carries went like this: Windrow one for 12 yards, Hartman three for 20, Woolls four for 17, Highsmith four for 15 and Highsmith caught two passes for 9 and 10 yards. Hartman got the

TD on a one yard QB sneak.

The third TD was a quickie, one minute in the third quarter, as Hartman found Neuman with-out a defender within 20 yards . . . he went 67 yards for an air-way TD. Billy nearly stumbled in the open field but finally up-righted himself and went on his way.

The fourth score was set up as Big Jug Wiemers pounced on a fumble on the Uvalde 20. Windrow pushed and pulled for 15, Highsmith got 4, then Windrow went over from the one.

The final Owl score went 69 yards . . . 36 in the air and 33 on the ground. Highsmith donated 14 as Hartman unloaded a terrific block, Windrow drove 11 and 5, while Billy Potsoovich got 3. Clyde Bohmfalk caught two passes for 13 and 9 yards . . . all before young Butch Smith got the 14 yard pay off toss for the climax.

Windrow, after kicking three for 5 last week, kicked all 5 extra points in Uvalde . . . the Owls blockers did a better job of keeping the defenders from breaking through.

Uvalde got its TD in the final minute on a 46 yard pass. The man got behind the halfback and made a beautiful catch. It was their only completion in 14 tries. An ex-Owl, Frank Rucker's son, Rex, kicked the extra point.

O T H E R G A M E N O T E

Charles Tilley had lots of kick-off practice and though he seemed to meet the ball easier, his kicks were the best he had shown. He hustled in the line too. Gary Schweers seemed to get in more plays . . . and guard Joe Torres got his first taste of a lot of defensive action and he produced surprisingly well. Every Owl got to see some action as Coach Carver let them all at least check in the game. Tackle Tommy Kock, bad leg and all, played a lot of offensive ball. Hartman's down-field blocking is as devastating as any I have ever seen. Uvalde came out to play ball, and they did. It was a hard game but they just did not have the horses to stand up to the spirited Owls for four quarters. The Coyotes were out to rush the passer, which is good football, but they were always a bit late . . . and on 3 or 4 occasions their treatment of Alvin bordered very close to "extra curricular," but it only added spice to Hartman's attitude. The game gave Hondo a 16 to 15 edge over the Coyotes and 3 wins in a row . . . something neither team has ever been able to accomplish over the other. This also makes the Owls' 16th game without a defeat (4 this year) . . . all a fine record for the '56 Owls . . . and a good one to keep improving on!

The Owls were UP for Uvalde, now they will have to be on guard against being DOWN for Floresville. This scout report says the Tigers block very hard in the line, and tackle as good as any opponent to date. They have two 250 pounds plus men to man the line and their lack of success in gaining a victory is a mystery. Like Uvalde, they run the single wing and the "T" . . . Let's hope the Owls are ready just in case Floresville is about to find themselves. Remember the Owls held the Tigers to minus yards last year, but then they began to improve later in the season and came on to win their AA District and Bi-District by beating the team that beat Del Rio . . . all this adds up to not count the Tigers out. Or how about two years ago . . . the Owls had a 20 to 0 half-time lead, only to have Floresville come back to gain a 20-20 tie!

The Tigers record: Three Rivers 7, Tigers 6; Seguin 19, Floresville 6; Aransas Pass 25, Tigers 6; Gonzales 44, Tigers 0. The Tigers have been victims of good ball clubs.

It'll be a ball game . . . the Owls will have to play them all hard for you can be sure that the Hondo Owls are THE team every opponent will be pointing for . . . Beat Hondo and you have had a successful season.

The Golf Course at HAB is still getting lots of play . . . the big thing now is the noticeable pick-up of interest and play of the female set. A large number of husband and wife sets have found the course a wonderful thing. This Sunday, a Scotch Foursome Tournament will be held . . . this is where a male and his female partner take alternate turns swinging at the same golf ball. It is always a lot of fun . . . and the more who enter, the more the fun.

St. Louis Comets Win Friday Opener

The St. Louis Comets punched across a last-quarter touchdown to break a 14-14 tie and then held on to their 6 point lead until the final whistle, to emerge victorious over the Royal Blues of St. Gerard's. It was a tense and dramatic ground duel as St. Gerard's pitted their T-trickery and a trio of speedy backs, Haag, Popp and Pawly against the single wing power-running of Royce Groff and Francis Lutz. The victory gave the Comets a 1 and 0 standing in league play, as they seek to repeat as champions of the South Texas Academic League.

For Francis Lutz, the game will probably stand out as the night he finally got his first touchdown on the ground. Having played two years at end, he was moved to the backfield this year and has proved his versatility by playing wingback, tailback and fullback equally well. His running has improved with every game and this Friday he really came into his own. In addition to his running assignments, he has been playing middle guard on defense and getting a large share of the tackles. He also helped the Comet cause by recovering two St. Gerard's fumbles, one of them on the Comet one-yard line.

The Comets took the opening kick-off from the home team, but were unable to start rolling and were forced to punt, the only punt of the game. Not so for the Royal Blues, who marched from their own 34 all the way to the goal on their second series of plays.

Quarterback Sheeran powered his way over from the three-yard line and Pawly kicked the extra point. The Comets came back to tie up the ball game immediately as they rolled 56 yards, a big chunk of it on a 20 yard gallop by Lutz. Groff tallied and also ran the extra point over to tie the score. As time was running out, the Royals passed, only to have this one intercepted, just as a previous one had been.

The Royals received to start the third quarter and on the second play substitute back Tommy Pawly broke into the clear and raced 65 yards before Groff finally brought him down on the 25. St. Gerard's rolled on down to the one yard line but lost fumble which Lutz recovered.

Signal-caller Steve Haby then began to send Lutz and Groff on ground-consuming forays that moved the ball deep into Royal Blue territory, but they lost their scoring opportunity on a penalty and a bad pass from center. St. Gerard's however, again lost the ball via a fumble which Steve Haby recovered. This time, St. Louis would not be denied and went all the way from mid-field to score. It was Lutz who sent the Comets in front as he powered his way off right tackle from the four-yard line. Groff again added the extra point.

The seesaw battle continued as St. Gerard's moved back to tie up the score. Fullback Walter Haag picked up most of the yardage and Pawly then swept right end for thirteen yards and their second score. He also converted

Owls Take Early Lead To Turn Back Uvalde

Hondo's powerful Owls traveled to Uvalde Friday night and came home with another victory under their belt with the lop-sided score of 35-7. The Owls are now undefeated on the score board in their last 16 outings. Their last score board defeat was at the hands of Deer Park in 1954 quarter final play.

Coach Max Carver's Owls seemed to never stand still during the entire night last Friday. The right arm of Alvin Hartman, Owl quarterback, is now beginning to lose some of its early season rust, as he completed 10 of 17 passes thrown. The Owls scored in every quarter, with Hartman, Ray Highsmith, Johnny Windrow and Butch Woolls crossing the double stripes. Windrow added five points after touchdown.

The Coyotes were hurt early in the first quarter when they received two penalties, setting them way back. The loss of Bill Collier, who may be out for a month with a hurt shoulder and who is the key man in the single-wing blocking formations, hurt Uvalde's running game and kept fullback Bradley Spring from gaining too much ground.

With the score standing at 35-0, Uvalde quarterback Steve Suttle uncorked a long pass to end Dick McGinnis, who caught the ball over his shoulder and ran for the six points. Rex Rucker kicked the extra point. But, this was 50 seconds before the end of a terrible night for the Uvalde Coyotes.

The game marked Hondo's third victory in as many years against Uvalde and set their season record at four wins and no losses. And, this week should not change their record — except for the win column.

Hondo takes on a Floresville eleven that was beaten last week 44-0 by Gonzales. Floresville has a strong team but should be listed as the underdogs. Gonzales has won all four of their season games, one being over Seguin who defeated Cotulla last week 84-7. Gonzales defeated Seguin by a 7-0 margin.
